thould be kept constantly at hand, for use in cuergencies of the household. Many a mother, startled in the ulght by the omitions sounds of Group, finds the little sufferer, with red and swollen face, gaspling for ule. In such cases Ayer's Cherry Peetoral is invaluable. Mrs. Emma Gedney, 150 West 128 st., New York, writes: "While in the country, last winter, my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with Croup; it seemed as if he would die from stranguistion. Ayer's Cherry Peetoral was tried in small and frequent doses, and, in less than half an hour, the little patient was breuting assily. The doctor said that the Peetoral swed my darling's life." Mrs. Class. R. Landon, Gullford, Conn., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Peetoral Gregg, Lowell, Mass., writes: "My shildren have repeatedly taken Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for Cougles and Croup. It gives immediate relief, followed by eure." Mrs. Mary E. Evans, Serantou, Pa., writes: "I have two little hoys, both of whom have been, from infancy, subject to violent attacks of Croup. About six months ago we hegan using Xyer's Cherry Pectoral, and it acts like a charm. In a few minutes after the child lakes it, be hreathes castly and rests well. Every mother ought to know what a blessing I have found in Ayer's Cherry Pectoral." Mrs. Wm. Ched, Freehold, N. J., writes: "In our family, Ayer's medicines have hern blessings for many years. THE NEWBURG DISASTER.

Working at the Rescue of the Boomed Thirty-seven Minors.
Newburne, W. Va., Jan. 18.—The work of rescue is being ideadily pushed at the scans of the mine disaster, but up to noon no bodies had been recovered. It is the prevailing opinion that the entire thirty-seven men are dead, although a few minurer express the bope that some of them may have secaped the effects of the expitation and reached a place free from the fatab black damp which always follows an explosion of this kind. The recens shout the mouth of tha muse are heartrending.

Frata Explosion.

INDIANATOLIS, Ind., Jan. 93.—A terrifle boller explosion occurred in the distillory of Fairbenics & Dunway at Terri Batte. Two man, Frank McNellis and George Ottoman, were instantly killed, and their bolles (rightfully manglel. Five other men amployed in the distillery were seriously injurel. The engine house is a complete wrock.

Sad Suicide.

COVINGTON, Ky., Jan. 23.—Mrs. Rodener, wife of cugar maker, took her three-montla-old child in her arms and, some time during the night, jumped into a cisteru and drowned herself and buby.
